Bruce Jenner: CALL ME BELINDA!

THE OLYMPIAN TAKES A NEW NAME — AND FINALLY CONFIRMS A STORY THAT STAR BROKE MORE THAN A YEAR AGO

THE news is finally official, but as Star readers know, Bruce Jenner's decision to become a woman has been in the works for years. And now that the cat's out of the bag, Bruce is happily planning his new life — complete with a new name!

Star has learned that Bruce wants to be known as Belinda after he finishes transitioning. "Inside, he has always been Belinda," explains a source close to the 65-year-old Kardashian clan patriarch. "He has been planning this transformation for such a long time."

Star first broke the news of Bruce's decision to become a woman back in 2013. And, while ex-wife Kris denied our report in numerous publications, Bruce's actions said otherwise. In January 2014, the former Olympian underwent a "laryngeal shave" in order to smooth out his Adam's apple — often said to be the first step in gender reassignment surgery. He went on to make noticeable changes to his appearance — from painting his nails to shaving his legs to undergoing what appeared to be medical procedures to make his shape curvier.

Bruce also began telling family members about his plan, with some turning out to be more supportive than others. According to the source, Kris put up the biggest fight — even though, Star has learned, she was well aware of his transgender orientation back in 1991, when she married him. "She knew what he was all about, but he was her trophy husband — a gold medal-winning Olympic athlete," says the insider. "He had told people before he even met Kris that he wanted to undergo the process of transitioning. But she talked him out of it." Bruce regretted that decision — and resented Kris for years as a result of it. "Outside of the birth of their two daughters, his life was nothing but hell," explains the insider.

When sources close to Bruce confirmed on Jan. 30 that he is, in fact, becoming a woman — and will star in a documentary about his process — the father of six felt an overwhelming sense of relief. "He has such a sense of freedom now," the source says. "He doesn't have to hide anymore." ★

According to reports, Kris "flipped out" when Bruce announced he's transitioning to a woman — but Kris has known about his desire to be a woman since the beginning of their marriage.

All the hottest Hollywood news!

THEY say the bonds of motherhood are forever, but apparently Sherri Shepherd didn't get the memo.

The former cohost of The View is being called a deadbeat mom by her surrogate, Jessica Bartholomew, after the 47-year-old comic reneged on their agreement in the wake of her divorce from Lamar Sally. Now, for the first time, Jessica is speaking out, revealing her utter disgust over Sherri's decision to abandon the baby she was once so desperate to have.

"I just don't understand how she can act like this baby is nonexistent. It just blows my mind," Jessica said in an explosive interview. "She would call up and check on me during the pregnancy in the beginning. At the 20-week appointment, she seemed very excited. I didn't see any warning signs."

Jessica was contracted via a surrogacy agency to carry Lamar Jr., born Aug. 5 and conceived using Lamar's sperm and another woman's egg. But when Sherri's marriage to Lamar disintegrated last May, apparently so did her interest in the baby. "Sherri offered me a settlement of $150,000, but it was not to have her name on the birth certificate," said Lamar. "I can't do that to my son."

But in the end, it is 23-year-old waitress Jessica whose name is listed on the baby's birth certificate, and it's she who is on the hook for his care. "I am now listed as a noncustodial parent in California. I have a child-support case coming against me now," Jessica admitted.

Since Lamar applied for state-funded health care, the government is also gunning for Jessica's wages and sending her the tot's medical bills. "What Sherri did is horrific, and she should be punished," fumes a source close to Jessica. "You can't hire someone to get pregnant for you and then at the last minute say, 'Oops, sorry. I changed my mind!' Jessica was trying to help Sherri and Lamar, and this is how Sherri repays her? It's appalling." ★

Kris' Divorce

Bad bug or a good doc? Kris Jenner claims that she spent three weeks laid up with the flu, but Star can reveal that the newly single Kardashian matriarch was actually recovering from her postbreakup face-lift! "In the wake of her divorce from Bruce, Kris felt like she looked really run-down and exhausted, so she scheduled an emergency overhaul after the holidays," dishes a tipster. "She stayed under the radar because she knew people would pick her apart if she went out in public with a puffy face."

In 2011, Kris admitted to having a face-lift prior to Kim's wedding to Kris Humphries, and while she isn't copping to a nip-and-tuck this time around, plastic surgeon Dr. Anthony Youn says she seems to have gone under the knife. "She looks like she's had a brow lift and her jawline is incredibly sharp for 59-year-old, and could be due to the pulling effect of a face-lift," says Dr. Youn. "Her cheeks are plump, possibly from injections of fat, and her wrinkle-free forehead is consistent with Botox injections."

But it isn't just her fantastic and plastic daughters she's trying to keep up with — it's her new boytoy, 34-year-old Corey Gamble too! "Kris has become extremely self-conscious since dating a younger man," says the insider. "She doesn't want Corey to think she has to depend on these procedures to keep him attracted to her." ★

THEN

VAL KILMER DYING FOR HIS RELIGION?

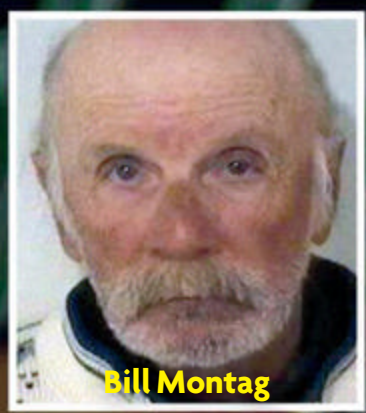

Despite dramatic weight loss, a gaunt face and coughing up blood, Val Kilmer's family says he is in denial about his spiraling health — and it's all because of his religion! The Tombstone actor has been battling a throat tumor since the summer, but his loved ones claim he was against seeking medical attention because it goes against his Christian Science beliefs, which say prayer — not medicine — is the way to heal illness. But on Jan. 26, he was rushed via ambulance to UCLA Medical Center for emergency surgery after bleeding from the throat. "Val is very stubborn and tried everything to get his tumor to heal naturally," says a family source. "He was adamantly against going to the hospital, but ultimately he had to." Val recently took to his Facebook page to address the "silly talk" and insist that there is no tumor, only a "complication" that has been cleared up. But the insider says he may finally be ready to put his health before his spirituality: "At this point, he's just so desperate to get better that he's doing whatever he has to." ★

HEIDI'S HORROR FATHER ACCUSED OF MOLESTATION!

Life after The Hills has not been kind to Heidi Montag. Not only has the surgerized starlet blown through her earnings, but she's now reeling from her father's arrest for sexual abuse and incest. On Jan. 26, Bill Montag, the man who walked Heidi down the aisle to marry fellow reality TV villain Spencer Pratt, was arrested in Aspen, Colo., on suspicion of abusing an unnamed girl more than 50 times from 1993 to 1998, starting when the girl was 13. Since the arrest, his wife, Terri, has reportedly fled town — but Heidi is supposedly confident in her father's innocence and says that his accuser has been trying to destroy the family for years. "His life is in ruins now," says neighbor Melody Morris. "Even if he's proven innocent, that dark cloud will always loom over him." ★

HOW GWYNETH GOT HER GROOVE BACK!

Newly single Gwyneth Paltrow has decided that 42 isn't too old to sow her wild oats! "Gwyneth says it's time she explored her sensuality and went on a journey of discovery, maybe to Tibet to study Buddhism," dishes a friend. "She also wants to try a bunch of bizarre foods, which doesn't seem like Gwyn, since she's so picky, but she really wants to branch out."

She's also on the prowl for a fun new fling! Star spotted a "glowing and sexy" Gwyn acting single and ready to mingle during a getaway to the St. Regis Punta Mita in Mexico for a pal's birthday. "She wants to just let loose and isn't opposed to going on an Eat, Pray, Love-type trip and hooking up with a random guy," added the insider. "She was married so long that she feels like she's missed out on exploring her sexuality." You've been warned! ★

GAGA'S PESKY PROBLEM

Lady Gaga is all about of-the-moment fashion trends, but her latest accessory is one she can do without: flea bites! A pal tattles to Star that Gaga got a nasty surprise when she let her French bulldog, Asia, share her bed and wound up with an infestation the critters. "Gaga dotes on Asia like she's a baby and loves it when they snuggle together in bed," a source tells Star. "But she was horrified when she started getting itchy red bites all over her body!" The pop star ended up having to flea bomb her posh New York City apartment. "Gaga was creeped out for days afterward, constantly checking the sheets and imagining fleas jumping around everywhere," added the insider. "She had to tell Asia there's no more sleeping on the bed." Ruff break, Asia! ★

AMY'S SHY SIDE

Amy Poehler has no problem spouting a raunchy joke, but the funnygal is far more modest when it comes to showing off her body! A frequent visitor to Sunset Tan in West Hollywood, where Amy gets a weekly bronzing, says the Parks and Recreation star is too shy to disrobe for an expert airbrusher and instead opts for the privacy of a Mystic tan machine. "She doesn't want anyone to see her naked or even in a bikini," the patron says. "I don't think its because she's a celebrity — she just seems pretty modest." ★

CHAZ BONO GETS BUFF

Chaz Bono is pumped and ready to take on the universe — Mr. Universe that is! After dropping 65 lbs. through diet and exercise, Cher's 45-year-old transgender son wants to enter a bodybuilding contest this summer. "Chaz wants to become a muscle man and works out six days a week," reveals a friend. "It's becoming a bit of an obsession." At 5'6", Chaz once tipped the scales at 250 lbs., but he says he now sticks to a low-carb, sugar-free, no-diary diet. "I'm feeling really good," he has said. "Physically, my body just feels so much better. I really like what I see in the mirror." ★

Johnny &

PRIVATE ISLAND WEDDING!

PICTURE PERFECT:
Johnny's island getaway sits inside a national park.

Surprise! The happy couple are just days away from saying "I do"!

AMBER HEARD's something blue could be the ocean. The actress and her fiancé, Johnny Depp, are set to tie the knot on his private island in the Bahamas this weekend, sources reveal. "They wanted to keep it a secret, so they only gave everyone a week's notice," spills a friend.

The 3 Days to Kill actress, 28, and the Mortdecai actor, 51, who met in 2011 on the set of The Rum Diary, will exchange vows in front of 50 guests on Little Hall's Pond Cay, which is located within the Exuma Islands. Johnny purchased the 45-acre piece of land — which has beaches named after his children, Lily-Rose, 15, and Jack, 12, as well as his idols Hunter S. Thompson and Marlon Brando — for $3.6 million in 2004.

Kwanza Bowe, one of Exuma Islands' only wedding planners and owner of Chat 'N' Chill Weddings and Beach Boutique, tells Star what the couple's guests can expect on the big day. "Conch salad is extremely popular at Exuma weddings and will certainly be on the menu," he explains. "They will also probably feature the Goombay Smash, which is the Bahamas' most famous drink, made with pineapple and coconut rum, white rum and wine."

The couple, who pals say were in no rush to marry, decided on the last-minute ceremony due to their impending work schedules. Johnny will soon begin filming Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Men Tell No Tales in Australia, while Amber will film The Danish Girl in London.

"Amber will wear a dress designed by Stella McCartney," spills an insider, "and she plans to go barefoot when she walks down the aisle." The guest list remains top secret, but sources say that Johnny is putting attendees up on a chartered yacht. ★

Sarah's NEW MYSTERY MAN

SEALED
KISS!

AFTER a heartbreaking 2014, Sarah Hyland is starting the new year on a high (and romantic) note. The Modern Family actress — who split from Matt Prokop in August and was granted a permanent restraining order against him in October following reports of abuse — seems to have found love again. Sarah, 24, was spotted making out with a mystery man on Feb. 1 while leaving Warwick nightclub in L.A. “They were all over each other,” spills an eyewitness, who adds the guy in question gifted Sarah with three long-stemmed pink roses. “It was obvious she didn’t care who was watching or that they were being photographed.” The pair then left together in a cab. “They were holding hands in the backseat before they sped off,” continues the spy. “He was being really sweet.” Onward and upward! ★

Avril & Chad ON THE MEND?

Complicated is an understatement for these two. After Star reported in the Oct. 6, 2014, issue that Avril Lavigne and Chad Kroeger were on the brink of divorce, the couple are now in the midst of a reconciliation. The Nickelback frontman, 40, who wed the “Hello Kitty” singer in July 2013, recently stepped up to the plate after his estranged wife revealed she’s suffering from an undiagnosed illness. Avril, 30, tweeted about her difficulties in December, saying, “I’m not feeling well. I’m having some health issues. So please keep me in your prayers.” And now the duo, who pals say used to fight constantly, are leaning on each other for support. “Seeing Avril suffer makes Chad want to care for her rather than fight with her,” admits a friend. “This whole thing made them realize how much they want to fix their marriage.” ★

Cara HITS ON EDDIE!

Cara Delevingne really does have no shame. The 22-year-old model, who’s romanced everyone from Harry Styles to Michelle Rodriguez, recently took things to a whole new level when she started pursuing newly married actor Eddie Redmayne. Sources close to Cara say she’s been bombarding the 33-year-old, who wed longtime love Hannah Bagshawe in December, with calls and texts. “She thinks he’s a very handsome and talented man,” admits an insider. Hannah, however, isn’t too pleased with her husband’s new admirer and thinks the notorious party girl has no boundaries. “Eddie assures her it’s platonic,” continues the pal, “but Cara usually gets what she wants.” ★

Tori & Dean CAN'T AFFORD THERAPY

TORI SPELLING and Dean McDermott can't catch a break. The couple's marriage has been hanging by a thread for more than a year, and Star can reveal that things are about to get even worse because they can no longer afford the one thing that's been helping them: couples therapy. Tori, 41, and Dean, 48, who were seeing Beverly Hills therapist Ann Wexler on their reality show True Tori, have had to put their intense sessions on hold to save cash. Reveals an insider: "Dean was responding well to it, and their marriage was slowly getting back on track. Now, without their weekly meetings, Tori is terrified that their hard work will be a complete waste." The pair are struggling to pay their $10,500 a month rent and child care for their four children, Liam, 7, Stella, 6, Hattie, 3, and Finn, 2. As a source puts it: "They're panicking." ★

Margot & Alexander HEAT UP SUNDANCE!

New love triangle alert! Margot Robbie and Alexander Skarsgård sent the rumor mill into overdrive when they were caught looking very cozy at the Sundance Film Festival in Park City, Utah, last month. The pair, who costar in the upcoming film Tarzan, stayed close when they posed for the cameras at the Sabra Hummus Kick-Off Party on Jan. 23. They then moved on to the IOak Tinder party, where an eyewitness caught them making out and holding hands. "They were trying to be discreet," dishes the spy, "but people couldn't help but notice." While Alexander, 38, is free to enjoy the single life, Margot, 24, has been dating assistant director Tom Ackerley for seven months. "She cares about Tom but says her chemistry with Alexander is unlike anything she's ever felt before," says a pal. "She's beyond confused." ★

Brad & Ryan's DOUBLE DATES

This has to be one of the best-looking foursomes in history. After bonding during talks for their upcoming film The Big Short, Brad Pitt and Ryan Gosling have begun mixing business with pleasure by going on double dates with their other halves, Angelina Jolie and Eva Mendes. "Brad and Ryan have become really close buddies," dishes an inside source, "and Eva has been a huge fan of Angelina's for years. She was dying to meet her." Brad, 51, and Angelina, 39, most recently invited Ryan, 34, and Eva, 40, who welcomed daughter Esmeralda in September, over for lunch. "They relaxed for a few hours while the kids played," spills the friend. Six kids under the age of 14 and one infant...now, that's a party! ★

Tom & Rita THEIR MARRIAGE CRUMBLES

HOLLYWOOD'S ULTIMATE MR. NICE GUY HAS A DARK SIDE THAT'S PUSHED HIM AND HIS WIFE TO THE BRINK OF A SHOCKING $400 MILLION DIVORCE AFTER 26 YEARS, SAY SOURCES.

IN The Tom Hanks Enigma, a 2006 biography that rocked the superstar's saintly public image, author David Gardner claimed to have had access to previously unseen court documents from Tom Hanks' mid-1980s divorce from his first wife and college sweetheart, actress Samantha Lewes. Tom, as he later admitted, had dumped Samantha — the mother of his son Colin, 37, and daughter Elizabeth, 32 — for actress Rita Wilson, after they fell in love while filming the 1985 movie Volunteers.

Gardner claimed that, at one point, Samantha asked the L.A. court for a restraining order against Tom, charging that he “repeatedly verbally abused and humiliated me during the past 90 days in my

Misery Train

Tom looked lost in thought — and seemed less than happy — as he rode the Manhattan subway alone on Jan. 22, while in NYC with Rita.

“designed to harass and upset me.” Tom fired back, according to Gardner, by claiming Samantha was delaying the divorce trial to “squeeze an unfair settlement out of me.”

Tom and Samantha were divorced in 1987; the following year, he and Rita were married in Los Angeles. And while that biography's shocking portrait of the beloved actor has largely been forgotten, insiders claim that behind closed doors, Tom, 58, has exhibited much of the same “cold, controlling behavior” with Rita, 58 — and that their marriage is close to the breaking point.

home. This caused me to suffer great emotional distress.” In another filing, Samantha added her estranged husband's requests for depositions were

IT'S BEEN BUILDING...

“You can feel the consistent tension between them,” one source tells Star exclusively. “They’ve both been good at biting their tongues for years, but it's reached a point where they've started to let loose at each other when they're out of the public eye. They're like a volcano that's about to explode!" Another insider adds, "Tom has always been heavy-handed and overbearing in his idea that he's the 'king of the household' — and I think Rita has just about had enough. She feels she can't take it anymore."

Tom and Rita — the parents of sons Chester, 24, and Truman, 19 — were recently in New York City while she rehearsed her costarring role in the upcoming Broadway comedy Fish in the Dark. Just before leaving L.A. for the Big Apple to join her, Tom reportedly was overheard telling a friend, "I'm on my way to New York to do nothing!" It's the kind of private comment, claims the insider, that opens a window to the true nature of Tom's personality.

"He's just finished filming a big spy drama with Steven Spielberg, and he's got more than 20 potential projects coming down the pike as a producer and actor over the next couple of years," the insider tells Star. "It's interesting that Tom couldn't even bring himself to say something like, 'I'm supporting my wife...' — but it's just not his nature, and his family's been used to it."

The source adds that Rita long ago realized her relationship with Tom had become "more businesslike and impersonal," and that he feels he has the final word on everything. "Tom has veto power," the source claims, "and if he doesn't like something you've said or done, he'll let you know about his displeasure in a cold, dispassionate way. He won't scold you outright, but he'll find a way to gently embarrass you, perhaps in a social setting."

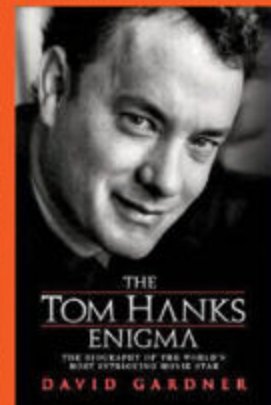

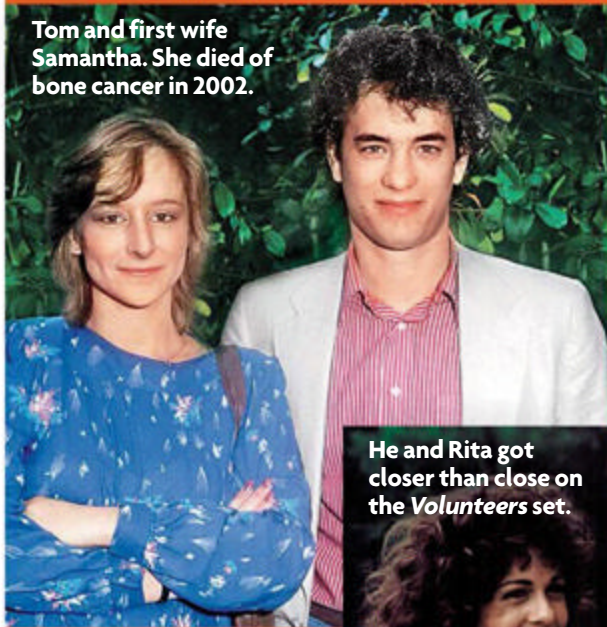

"Sure, he and Rita loved each other; he wouldn't have left his first wife for her if he didn't. But given Tom's real, behind-the-scenes personality — grumpy, stoic and aloof, not the cuddly Regular Joe image he's carefully cultivated with the public — I think she long ago resigned herself to him always having the final say in their family dynamic, whether it involves their children or something as simple as where they'll vacation."

RITA HAS HER SAY

But now, the source claims, Rita has reached the point where she's been standing up to her husband — and their

BROKEN VOWS, A BROKEN HEART

Tom and first wife Samantha. She died of bone cancer in 2002.

He and Rita got closer than close on the Volunteers set.

The 2006 biography The Tom Hanks Enigma painted an unflattering portrait of Tom's divorce from his first wife, actress Samantha Lewes (real name: Susan Dillingham), after he fell in love with Rita while they filmed Volunteers in Thailand in 1985. Tom and Samantha had wed seven years earlier, and years after their divorce, Tom admitted about his affair with costar Rita: "I did happen to be married at the time, and there's nothing to celebrate about that. But the reality was it was a young marriage and a difficult marriage." Tom added, "Rita and I looked at each other and — ka-boing — that was that... But I knew what was and was not. I asked Rita if it was the real thing for her, and it just couldn't be denied."

relationship has been fraying even more because of it. "They've had heated yelling matches where Tom tries to put his foot down, and Rita will give it right back to him. He doesn't want to have his perceived authority questioned — and she thinks his behavior has become incorrigible!

"Tom and Rita's body language has become very cold!"

"Rita has her own career as an actor in films and on TV and Broadway, and she's also a singer — she recorded a well-received album that was released in 2012. I think she's finally had it with Tom acting like the overlord in their lives. And I wouldn't be surprised if the unthinkable happens — in the public's eye, at least — and she calls it quits."

HIS PAINFUL PAST

In one respect, Tom's overbearing personality as a husband and father might be expected, given that he himself is the child of a broken family — and has talked openly about his tragic upbringing.

"There's no denying I had an unhappy childhood," admits Tom, who was 5 years old when his parents, Amos and Janet, divorced in 1961. His mom let Amos take custody of Tom, and he was often uprooted and had to live with a number of stepmoms as his father, who died in 1992, remarried several times. "I felt lonely. I felt abandoned, in the dark," Tom has said. "There was confusion — and later on, there was hurt." He also has described a cool relationship in later years with his mother, Janet. "I'm not as close to my mom as other kids are [to theirs]," he admitted. "I say to my mom, 'I love you, but I don't know you because I didn't live with you.'" His Forrest Gump costar Sally Field has stated that Tom "comes from a nonfamily. He was a boy in search of a family."

The source tells Star, "It's almost like a textbook case of Tom overcompensating for his own nomadic and disjointed upbringing by trying to keep such iron-handed control over everything his own family is involved in — and also why his behavior behind closed doors can be so cool and calculating.

"It sounds crazy, but it's almost as if he keeps everyone, including those closest to him, at arm's length emotionally, given all the hurt he suffered when he was so young and so impressionable. On one hand, you obviously can't help feeling sympathy for him."

MONEY MATTERS

Even as Tom and Rita drifted apart, say insiders, they put their own struggles on the back burner and rebounded as parents in the face of a family emergency involving their son Chester, an aspiring rapper better known as Chet Haze. As Star exclusively reported, Chet spent eight years battling substance abuse, including bouts with cocaine and booze, before heading to rehab in California last fall. Newly clean and sober, he bravely went public with his battle in a post to his Twitter page last November. "Rita is particularly close to and affectionate with both her sons," an insider tells Star. "Tom took a tough-love approach to Chet that Rita didn't always agree with." A source adds, "They both did the best they could for their son, but obviously, Chet's struggles took a serious toll on the family and only added to his parents' problems."

ways with his money would make for a rambunctious court battle. Together, the couple are worth an estimated $400 million — $380 million of which was earned by Tom, and most of it while he was with Rita.

The topper: "They don't have a prenup!" the source claims. "It would be really interesting to see how that played out in court, because Tom's always been worried about the bottom line. He's the kind of guy who definitely pores over the family checkbook and keeps a tight hold on the purse strings."

The insider adds: "Tom didn't become a Hollywood icon until well into his marriage with Rita. Think about all the money he's made as an actor or producer with Sleepless in Seattle, Philadelphia, Forrest Gump, Toy Story, Cast Away, My Big Fat Greek Wedding and on and on. You know Rita can make the case that she deserves a chunk of that."

But what Rita really deserves, says the source, is more peace of mind. "It's almost as if her upcoming work on Broadway will be like an escape from Tom for a while," the source tells Star. The insider adds, "Divorce would obviously be the last option for Rita — but everyone has a breaking point." ★

Jen's Fresh Start

SAFE NO MORE, THE REINVENTED JENNIFER ANISTON IS BUSTING OUT OF HER COMFORT ZONE IN HER CAREER, HER PERSONAL LIFE — AND ON THE RED CARPET.

FOR years, Jennifer Aniston's red carpet style could be summed up in one word: safe. But as Jen arrived at this year's Screen Actors Guild Awards in a vintage couture gown with a jaw-dropping neckline, it was clear that the former LBD lover had left her comfort zone far behind. "Jen is sick and tired of doing what's expected of her," says a source close to the actress. "She's finally where she wants to be in her relationship and career — and that makes her confident enough now to change things up."

Throwing away her trademark cocktail dresses for bold colors and loads of cleavage, Jennifer is sexier than ever as she approaches her 46th birthday — and that isn't just a fashion statement. According to sources close to Jen, she has a whole new attitude to go with her new look, abandoning old insecurities and shyness, speaking out about her true feelings on subjects from babies to Brangelina — and taking risks in her career that make her fashion choices seem tame. "This

Center Stage

Jen's sexy vintage John Galliano dress was part of her plan to step into the spotlight, fashion-wise. Judging from the fans' response, mission accomplished!

GOOD-BYE, LBD!

is the year of Jen,” says the insider. “She’s through with all the bull. She wants to be taken seriously.”

FORGIVING ANGIE

For Jen, the first step in being taken seriously is putting the feud with Angelina Jolie behind her. While the two actresses haven’t spoken since Angelina famously hooked up with Jen’s then-husband, Brad Pitt, on the set of 2005’s Mr. & Mrs. Smith, Jen wants the world to know that she’s no longer holding a grudge.

On Jan. 16, Jen told

Entertainment Tonight,

“I think that’s slowly coming to an end, I really do,” when asked about her feud with the 39-year-old actress — and even went on to praise Angelina’s directing work on

Unbroken. “I mean, that movie is so beautiful and wonderful, and she did such a gorgeous job.”

It took Jen a long time to reach this point. It was in 2008, after all, that she blasted Angelina as “uncool” for gushing about her early days with a still-married Brad. But thanks to the passage of time — and BABY TALK!

The new Jen isn’t just “baring it all” in her fashion choices. She’s gone public with parts of her life she previously kept under wraps, such as her childhood struggle with dyslexia — and her and Justin’s current efforts to conceive a baby. “Who knows if it’s going to happen?” she said. “It’s been a want. We’re doing our best.”

the support of her fiancé, Justin Theroux — Jen truly has moved on. And complimenting Angelina is her way of letting the world know. “She’s on a mission to show everyone how far she’s come,” says the insider. “Some think she shouldn’t be saying such nice things about Angelina. They think it seems like she’s trying too hard to be nice. But for Jen, saying positive things about the woman who stole her husband is an important part of healing.”

It’s also very brave. In the past,

Jen tended to be evasive when asked about her personal life. But now she’s more forthright than she’s ever been, recently admitting that she and Justin were actively working on having a baby — and even speaking out about her contentious relationship with her mother. “She was very critical of me,” she confessed. “Because she was a model, she was gorgeous, stunning. I wasn’t. I never was. I honestly still don’t think of myself in that sort of light, which is fine.”

ACTING CHOPS

Jen’s insecurity — over her looks as well as her acting — kept her from taking challenging roles in the past. But these days, she’s not afraid of seeking out unglamorous, unfunny roles that spotlight her talent. And sources say her turn as a pain-pill addict in the movie Cake is just the beginning. “I wanted to challenge myself,” says Jen, who for years had seemed content to play it safe by choosing light romantic comedies.

And according to the insider, Jen doesn’t plan to stop there. Buoyed by the critical praise she’s received, the actress plans to challenge herself — and her fans — even further in the future. Says the insider, “Jen is reinventing herself, and she has no idea where it will take her.” ★

DRESS DÉJÀ VU

Jen’s previous red-carpet choices were a bit Groundhog Day-ish... one little black dress after another, after another...

While the look was classic, it was also very predictable. “Jen never felt comfortable in bold, provocative clothes,” says the insider. But boy, have things changed!

Betrayed By A Brother

“Joe Gorga knew that Joe Giudice was screwing everybody, and because Gorga was so jealous of the Giudices, he called the state to rat them out and take them down,” says an insider.

Joe & Teresa

WE are heartbroken for our family and especially those four sweet girls,” Melissa Gorga blogged last October, days after learning that her sister-in-law, Teresa Giudice, was sentenced to 15 months in federal prison. “Pray for them. No matter how you feel, I hope everyone is wishing their family strength and faith.”

Melissa’s words now smack of crocodile tears. In a shocking new revelation, a source close to the case tells Star that it was none other than Melissa’s husband and Teresa’s own brother, Joe Gorga, who ratted the Giudices out to the feds in the first place — and Melissa knew all about it. The motive, it appears, was fraternal jealousy, Jersey-style.

HOW IT ALL BEGAN

Back in 2008, as filming for the first season of RHONJ began, Teresa and Joe Giudice were the stars of the show; Joe Gorga and his wife, however, were little more than extras. “The Gorgas felt like Teresa didn’t give them camera time and ignored them, which she did do,” says the source. “The way she explained it was that the cameras weren’t interested in the Gorgas.”

According to the source, the truth was that the Giudices weren’t interested in sharing the spotlight — and the money it brought — with family rivals, and this infuriated the Gorgas. So, in a moment

TWO SNITCHES TO PARADISE

On Jan. 29, while Teresa was cooling her heels in federal prison, the brother and sister-in-law who turned her in were warming theirs on the beach in St. Thomas during a family vacation. Given that the Gorgas owe thousands in liens and back taxes, it’s a mystery how they can afford such luxuries. But Joe and Melissa might consider hopping just a little further south, to a country without an extradition treaty with the U.S. According to an insider, the Gorgas themselves are now being investigated by the state and the IRS for tax evasion and fraud.

Women Behind Bars

Melissa Gorga may be following her sister-in-law to the Federal Correctional Institution in Danbury, Conn.

HE SENT HIS SISTER TO PRISON!

WHAT SPARKED THE INVESTIGATION THAT LANDED TERESA AND JOE GIUDICE IN PRISON? IT ALL STARTED WHEN HER JEALOUS BROTHER CALLED THE STATE.

JOE GORGA

“Teresa had no problem flipping on her brother after learning that he is the reason she and her husband are doing jail time.”

WHAT THE FEDS KNOW

As Star has previously reported, the Gorgas are already up to their necks in financial problems. Last year, they were facing $35,000 in state tax liens and more than $130,000 in civil lawsuits — many from businesspeople who claim Joe shafted them. And according to the source, Joe and Teresa gave the feds just the info they need to pursue criminal charges against the Gorgas.

“The Gorgas and Giudices weren’t working together, but they were running the same fraud games and they learned from the same people,” the source says. “So as part of their deal, the Giudices gave info to the feds on the Gorgas not paying taxes. They also gave info on some of the Gorgas’ specific fraudulent transactions and examples of tax evasions, like things they didn’t report.”

The Gorgas know full well that the Giudices betrayed them, says the source, and while they’re acting like everything is normal, they’re secretly “scared to death.” ★ of anger and envy, Joe Gorga made a call to the authorities. “Gorga ratted Giudice out on all the things that he was doing illegally: not paying the IRS, mortgage fraud, everything that the Giudices were busted for,” says the source. “The Gorgas are the reason that the Giudices have gone to prison.”

When Joe Gorga realized his sister faced incarceration, he immediately had regrets, says the source. “He didn’t think Teresa would ever go to prison. He wanted to rat Joe Giudice out but not Teresa. It backfired,” says the insider.

THE GIUDICES’ REVENGE

Amazingly, the Giudices didn’t find out about the betrayal until just a few months

Her Painful Childhood

Growing up in a volatile showbiz family — plagued by Whitney and Bobby's drug abuse and arrests — was hard on Bobbi Kristina. "It wasn't until she was older that she realized her life wasn't 'normal,'" says the source. "She never really recovered from that."

Security Breach

When Nick returned to North Fulton Hospital to visit his wife the night of Jan. 31, a scuffle broke out. "Police and security physically escorted him from the floor," says an eyewitness. "And he never came back."

“She’s been battling a deep depression since her mother’s death.”

DRAMA AT THE HOSPITAL!

NICK GORDON didn’t bat an eyelash when his wife, Bobbi Kristina Brown, said she was going to take a bath in their Roswell, Ga., home on Jan. 31. “The anniversary of her mother’s death was approaching, and he figured maybe she needed some alone time,” says a source close to the couple. “She was sad but not suicidal.”

Aspiring singer Bobbi Kristina (known to her inner circle as “Krissy”) had been reflecting on her late mother, Whitney Houston, lately. Earlier that week, she’d tweeted: “... miss you mommy ..”) SOmuch.. loving you more every sec.” And the recent Lifetime TV movie Whitney had opened old wounds. “Krissy thought about her mother constantly,” the insider says. “It left a big hole when she passed.”

A while after Bobbi Kristina, 21, entered the bathroom, Nick knocked on the door. “When she didn’t answer him, he knew something was wrong,” the source says. He opened the door and discovered his wife facedown in the tub — a scene eerily reminiscent of Whitney’s death, on Feb. 11, 2012, when she drowned in a bathtub at the Beverly Hilton Hotel at 48.

“Nick didn’t panic, which is kind of amazing,” the insider says. “He dragged her out of the water and started slapping her face to wake her up and then gave her mouth-to-mouth right away. He had a friend over, and they both tried CPR, then he called 911. She was still alive when she got to the hospital, thanks to him.”

CLINGING TO LIFE

Bobbi Kristina was rushed to North Fulton Hospital in Roswell, and Nick notified her family members, including her dad, Bobby Brown, who took a private jet from Los Angeles, courtesy of family friend Tyler Perry. “He rushed over as soon as he landed,” the source says. “Krissy was still breathing but was put on a ventilator pretty quickly.”

Things were touch and go for the next few hours. At 11:30 a.m. on Sunday, Feb. 1, Bobbi Kristina went into cardiac arrest. “There was a code blue alert. Everyone on the floor thought that she had died at that point,” says a second source. “The family was freaking out.”

Doctors managed to resuscitate her, and her family — minus 81-year-old grandma Cissy

Family Tensions

Bobbi Kristina’s family doesn’t trust Nick, who Whitney raised as her own son from the time he was 12. “They think he’s taken advantage of Krissy,” who inherited her mom’s fortune, says a source. The couple don’t have a prenup.

Houston, who has remained in New Jersey due to her frail condition — have held vigil at her bedside ever since. “They’re doing a lot of praying,” the source says. “Bobby is a wreck. He’s devastated. He and Krissy just started rebuilding their relationship. It wasn’t perfect, but they were talking.”

A CRY FOR HELP

It is unclear whether Bobbi Kristina will recover; even though she’s showing vital signs, the time she spent underwater may have caused brain damage. Police are investigating her near drowning but have said they did not find drugs in her home. Still, while family insiders insist that Bobbi Kristina had been drug-free in recent months, others speculate that she must have ingested something before her fateful bath. “She’s been battling a deep depression since her mother’s death,” the source explains. Bobbi Kristina has reportedly attempted suicide in the past and exhibited signs of bipolar disorder.

Her family, however, blames her relationship with Nick, 24. On Jan. 23, police received an anonymous call reporting a fight at the couple’s residence, but by the time officers arrived at the scene, nobody was home. “Nick is an opportunist who treats Krissy like crap,” says the insider. “The entire family has always had a problem with him.”

On Jan. 29, Bobbi Kristina tweeted, cryptically, “On my own” — a message some now see as a cry for help. “The sad thing is, she was just starting to get it together,” the insider says. “It’s tragic.” ★

Star Talks To MISS UNIVERSE Paulina Vega

...Everywhere!

"The crown isn't so heavy; it's quite comfortable. It resembles the [skyline of] New York, which is my new home — so I'll make sure to carry it to Starbucks and the supermarket," laughs Paulina. "I already showered with it!"

WINNING the title of most beautiful woman in the universe may seem daunting. But Paulina Vega, 22, the victor of the 63rd annual Miss Universe Pageant in Doral, Fla., can't wait to travel the globe and begin working on her pageant platform: educating people on HIV/AIDS prevention and treatment. It's a difficult task, but one the former Miss Colombia — a business administration student who speaks Spanish, English and French — is well suited for. She spoke to Star about the competition, her yearlong reign and how heavy that crown actually is.

What's the biggest misconception about the Miss Universe Pageant?

People don't know what the winner does besides be beautiful, wear makeup and smile. We have a responsibility to represent the women of our state, our country, our world. After I won Miss Colombia, I was working every day, traveling around my country and raising funds for different charitable foundations. I learned so much about myself and Colombia, and now I'll travel the world!

Did you enjoy the competition?

It was great! I made friends with women from vastly different countries and cultures, including Guyana, France and Finland. I think that I have a home in every country in the world because of that.

What about the selfie controversy between Miss Israel and Miss Lebanon?

It was upsetting. I don't understand why, if my country has a problem with another country, I can't take a selfie with them. I think that's unnecessarily political. They're young girls having fun, demonstrating tolerance and representing positive things about their countries.

What was your key to winning?

Being authentic and natural and spontaneous. The world wants to see the real person, not mascara or acting or all this other stuff. Just me being me!

How did you celebrate?

My whole family was in Miami, so we spent time at the hotel until 4 a.m. eating pizza and laughing! We couldn't believe what happened.

Are you excited about living in New York?

I love the city — its vibe, environment and architecture. I love my apartment; it's two blocks from Central Park, and my roommate is Miss USA, so I will never feel alone.

Why did you choose HIV as your platform?

I think it's a very important topic today because we can fight it with prevention and education. If I'm able to help spread the message around the world that you need to be careful and know what to do in certain situations, then I can help the cause.

Are you single?

No, I have a boyfriend. He was at the pageant, but now he's back home in Colombia. I have no idea when I will see him again — maybe in, like, three months when I travel back there. But when I do get back to Colombia, I think the first thing I'll do is sleep!

Dinner...And Reservations

Kris and Melanie — who were reportedly introduced by their personal trainer — met up for supper on Dec. 13 at Craig's restaurant in West Hollywood. "I don't think cozying up to a hard partyer like Kris is in Melanie's best interest," says a friend.

Kris & Melanie

DESPERATE

"EX-HOUSEWI

MELANIE GRIFFITH IS UPPING HER EXPOSURE WITH AN UNLIKELY FRIENDSHIP WITH PUBLICITY-CRAZED KRIS JENNER. BUT FRIENDS SAY THE FORMER MOVIE STAR WILL LIVE TO REGRET IT.

ALONE TOGETHER

Kris' divorce from Bruce Jenner became final in December. But while Bruce is making plans to become a woman, Melanie's estranged hubby, Antonio Banderas, reportedly left her for another woman — sexy investment consultant Nicole Kimpel, whom he was photographed wining and dining last May. Melanie filed for divorce the next month.

"Bruce is happily living his own life in Malibu and has no intention of getting involved in any more of Kris' projects," says a source.

ONLY in Hollywood! With her reality TV empire on the verge of crumbling around her, Kris Jenner has formed an unlikely friendship with a 1980s movie star whose career has also seen better days — and who, like Kris, is dealing with divorce. That movie star is Melanie Griffith, the former sex-bomb leading lady who had a penchant for getting naked in cult dramas like Body Double, Fear City and Something Wild. Melanie also garnered an Oscar nomination for Best Actress for her starring role in 1988's Working Girl.

Now, seemingly out of the blue, Melanie has become Kris' "new BFF," as the reality diva ecstatically wrote in early December, in the first of numerous Instagram photos they've posted together. Since then, Kris, 59, and Melanie, 57 — the daughter of actress Tippi Hedren, who starred in Alfred Hitchcock's The Birds — have hung out in Aspen and Los Angeles. But aside from commiserating over the breakups of their respective marriages to Bruce Jenner and Antonio Banderas, insiders wonder what's behind this bizarre pairing of newfound pals.

WHO'S USING WHO?

"I think this friendship is built around mutual goals, plain and simple — but not necessarily good ones," says a source. "Melanie is hardly a household name anymore. In fact, her star is about to be

"Melanie was devastated when her marriage to Antonio crashed and burned," a friend tells Star.

SO SELFIE-ASSURED!

INSTAGRAM

Like a couple of giddy teenagers, Kris and Melanie went on an extended "InstagRampage" of posting photos of themselves hanging out together soon after bonding late last year. Melanie even posted one of herself with Corey Gamble, the 34-year-old music executive whom Kris recently began dating.

"Melanie hasn't had any decent movie roles in years, and it must be hard for her to face a stagnant career" says the insider. "I have a feeling she thinks she can get back into the public eye by hanging with Kris — and I wouldn't be surprised at all if she was looking to make the leap into reality TV to kick-start her career again. They could even do a show together!"

Another insider tells Star that's just what Kris has in mind — though more for her own benefit. "Kris can see the writing on the wall that the Kardashian TV empire is nearing an end," says the source. "Everyone expects Kim Kardashian and Kanye West to quit the show; Kourtney Kardashian and Scott Disick's relationship is more toxic than ever; Khloé's a complete mess; and Bruce wants nothing to do with her schemes anymore.

"What better way for Kris to keep her profile high — at least in her own mind — than to start a new project with someone like Melanie, who used to be Hollywood royalty? Kris is so besotted by fame, I think she believes Melanie will actually lend her some respectability."

BAD COMPANY

A friend of Melanie's has another concern: Kris never met a party she didn't like — while Melanie has been sober for five years after three stints in rehab for alcohol and painkillers. "Hopefully, Melanie will keep her distance when Kris jets off to one of her champagne-soaked Vegas bashes," says the friend. "Melanie's worked too hard to get to this healthy point in her life.

"Anyway, if you had told me 20 years ago that Melanie — who's costarred with Hollywood legends like Paul Newman, Harrison Ford and Michael Douglas — would end up best buddies with a reality TV diva like Kris, I would have laughed in your face!"

5 Questions With Margaret Cho

The Notorious CHO talks about talking about sex!

All About Sex

Airs Saturdays at 11PM on TLC

The Sex panel, from left: Margaret, Marissa Jaret Winokur, Heather McDonald and Dr. Tiffanie Davis Henry.

A Sa comedian who's made a career out of embracing taboos — see her Golden Globes performance as a temperamental North Korean critic — Margaret Cho likes to play with fire, both on stage and in bed! She spoke to Star about her titillating roundtable talk show, All About Sex, which wraps up its first season on Feb. 14.

1. What's hot in sex?

Everyone's excited about the Fifty Shades of Grey movie, so we're discussing how people could incorporate the sexuality from that in their own sex lives. I think people have the misconception that BDSM is violent or somehow sexist, but when there's intimacy and trust, there is no danger. It's a world that I've already involved myself in for 25 years.

2. Why do you think it has hit such a nerve?

You have this woman who's learning about a world she never knew existed. That discovery is appealing.

3. Why are women more open to discussing sex than men?

We're socialized to pay more attention to the emotional side of things. But I think anyone can learn a lot from our discussions.

4. Any Valentine's Day plans?

Not really, I think romance and love should be celebrated every day!

5. Tell us about your special.

I've been on tour all over the world and will be filming a special in March that will air on Showtime in the spring. It's really powerful and funny and will be a little bit of rock'n' roll and a lot of madness! ★

→ THE VOICES

Ryan Reynolds stars in this pitch-black comedy as Jerry, a seemingly normal guy with serious mental issues. How serious? His pets talk to him and force him to do evil things. OK, not both pets; the dog is a pretty nice guy, but that cat, Mr. Whiskers, keeps urging him to kill people. Jerry is on work-release from prison and regularly sees a therapist (Jacki Weaver) about the voices that he hears. He's got a crush on a girl in accounting (Gemma Arterton) at the bathtub factory where he works but doesn't notice that another coworker (Anna Kendrick) has a thing for him when the evil voices take over. There's enough blood and gore that this could be mistaken for a horror film, but it's just too weirdly funny. Most of that comes from Reynolds, whose chipper demeanor disguises an obviously confused interior. It's not a film for everyone; in fact, it's probably not for most. But if you have a twisted enough sense of humor, you'll be consistently amused.

LONG STORY SHORT: It kills... and kills... and kills. ★★★★★

→ FRESH OFF THE BOAT

Airs Tuesdays at 8PM on ABC

Think of this as The Wonder Years set in the 1990s, with Taiwanese Americans as the central characters. It's based on the real-life story of hotshot chef/restaurateur Eddie Huang, who was in middle school when his first-generation-immigrant parents moved the family from Washington, D.C., to Orlando. So the hip-hop-loving preteen becomes the new kid in an extremely Anglo school and neighborhood. Meanwhile, his mother (Constance Wu), who didn't want to move away from her family, is unhappy with his father (Randall Park), who opens a Western steak house that isn't an immediate hit in their new hometown. Eddie (Hudson Yang) is a troublemaker with delusions of his own cool factor — and a familiar figure on the sitcom landscape. But the writing is strong enough to keep the laughs coming, and its family humor is reminiscent of The Middle and The Goldbergs. ★★★★★

→ THE JINX: THE LIFE AND DEATHS OF ROBERT DURST

Premieres Sunday, Feb. 8, at 8PM on HBO

Filmmaker Andrew Jarecki has put together this intense true-crime docuseries about wealthy suspected triple-murderer Robert Durst, and it features the first on-camera interview with Durst. Jarecki blends home movies with reimagined episodes, taped police interrogations and courtroom scenes to create a fascinating portrait of a monster — or the unluckiest man in the world. Suspected in three separate killings (including the disappearance of his first wife, Kathleen, who was never found), Durst has been tried but never convicted of murder — and now he gets a chance to tell his side of the story. Jarecki moves back and forth between the crimes, as well as examining Durst's personal life as the son of one of New York's wealthiest real estate developers. From seeing his mother jump to her death as a child to hiding from the law by dressing as a mute woman, Durst is like a Rubik's cube of quirks, with creepy new facets popping up at each turn. ★★★★★

Robert Durst with Kathleen, and now.

→ BETTER CALL SAUL

Premieres Sunday, Feb. 8, at 10PM on AMC

If you're still missing Breaking Bad, perhaps this prequel will satisfy your addiction. It stars Bob Odenkirk as lawyer Saul Goodman, in a series set six years before he meets Walter White. He hasn't changed his name to Saul yet; he's still Jimmy McGill, a struggling attorney making ends meet as a public defender in Albuquerque, N.M., where he lives with his older brother (Michael McKean), a brilliant attorney hobbled by mental illness. But Jimmy can't seem to catch a break. Desperate, he tries to pull a scam to win a client and instead winds up at the wrong end of a gun held by gangbanger Tuco (Raymond Cruz). If that name is familiar, you know you want to tune in — if it's not, you'll want to make his acquaintance. He's one of a handful of familiar faces from Breaking Bad, but this is Odenkirk's show. He plays Jimmy as a fast-talking guy with a quick mind and at least mild objections to actively breaking the law. Look for this show to chart his descent into the dark side, where he will, someday, meet Walter White. Enjoy the ride. ★★★★★

LEO

JULY 23–AUG. 22

Beware of keeping secrets from a loved one; leaving out even a small detail could be seen as withholding something. A boost to your bank account can put a smile on your face, but don't be hasty.

VIRGO

AUG. 23–SEPT. 22

Love, romance and passion are all on the agenda. It would be wise to keep your schedule flexible — your love stars promise action! Business also presents a few surprises; there is movement in this week's star chart. Stand by for news.

LIBRA

SEPT. 23–OCT. 22

A friend or contact could help you move up in the world. When socializing, someone's behavior can be very revealing. If you want to have a sensitive discussion, make sure to get his or her full attention.

SCORPIO

OCT. 23–NOV. 21

Love is highlighted. Get ready for romance — but there is more to love than passion; you also need a strong friendship for longevity. A family discussion can come to a head and allow you to clear past unsettled energy.

SAGITTARIUS

NOV. 22–DEC. 21

With family, there's plenty of excitement, and you are the main attraction! For lasting love, set your mind on what you want from a partner. Someone from the past can help you open a door to the future.

CAPRICORN

DEC. 22–JAN. 19

This is a year for success, and your patience and hard work can finally pay off. A romantic interlude with someone intelligent gets your attention. Good news may provide financial security, but don't be concerned if there is a delay.

CHRIS'

First Fro-ray

Before he was Star-Lord and rumored to be the next Indiana Jones, Chris Pratt was a 21-year-old who got lucky when he served actress/director Rae Dawn Chong while working as a waiter in 2000. His charm and good looks impressed her so much, she cast him in her horror movie Cursed Part 3 — now available for download at radiclymystic.com — and the rest is film history!

* Weirdest Beauty Treatment

Gwyneth Paltrow strikes again! In a recent article on her lifestyle website Goop, the actress praised the benefits of a V-Steam — a spa treatment that cleanses your lady parts. “You sit on what is essentially a mini throne,” explained the actress, “and a combination of infrared and mugwort steam cleanses your uterus, et al.” Um, WHAT?

* Craziest Makeover

A guidette in training! In a move that sparked controversy from some fans, Jenni “JWoww” Farley recently gave her 7-month-old daughter, Meilani, a Jersey Shore–style makeover, complete with sunglasses, hair extensions, fake boobs and a shirt that reads “I’m so fancy.”

* Funniest Confession

Years before Game of Thrones became an HBO hit, Amanda Peet tried to dissuade her husband, the show’s cocreator David Benioff, from going ahead with the project. “I thought it was a terrible idea,” she recently admitted. Good thing he ignored her!
